Cigar Sommelier Education & Certification
pathways build on our proprietary
Cigar Peak-Flavor System®

InterTabac 2026 | Messe Dortmund | 15-17 September

From Intuition To Calibrated Performance

As the global market expands beyond classic Cuban references, professionals and aficionados face an unprecedented diversity of blends, constructions and flavor profiles. ICSI provides a rigorous, discreet system to decode this complexity, translating blend structure into precise smoking conditions and repeatable peak-flavor performance.

ICSI is the first globally to offer certification courses that include sensory science, quantification of flavor and aroma, data-driven cigar classification, and digital tools including applications, analytics and guided tasting systems. ICSI applies the ISO/IEC 17024 Quality Systems framework.

Three Audiences, Three Pathways

Professionals

For aspiring cigar professionals. Build a career grounded in precision, structure and credibility, with a rigorous understanding of cigar construction, combustion dynamics, humidity behavior and flavor evolution. Preparing candidates for premium lounges, retail and luxury hospitality.

Business

For retailers, lounges and hospitality groups. Modernise your cigar offering through implementation and certification of the Cigar Peak-Flavor System®, to standardise service, optimise performance, strengthen loyalty and grow cigar sales with confidence.

Private Mastery

For aficionados and collectors. An advanced private pathway for a more precise understanding of calibration, ageing, performance staging and peak-flavor delivery across a wider range of blends.

Certification Pathways

Four tailored pathways for professional development, industry modernisation and advanced personal optimisation.
